Trainer/assessor guide

BSBCOM404

Promote and liaise on compliance requirements, systems and related issues

Welcome to this unit of study

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to communicate about an organisation's compliance requirements and commitments to staff, agents, contractors and other relevant third parties.

It applies to individuals who use well developed promotional and liaison skills, combined with knowledge of relevant legislative requirements, code/s of practice and internal standards and procedures, to ensure that compliance is an integral part of normal business operations.

Application of this unit must be consistent with the pertinent sections of relevant Australian and international standards and legislative requirements including: AS 3806:2006 Compliance programs, AS ISO 10002:2006 Customer satisfaction – Guidelines for complaints handling in organizations, AS/NZS 4360:2004 Risk management and AS ISO 15489:2004 Records management.

It may be undertaken as:

- » part of a formal qualification nationally recognised through the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)
- » a stand alone unit
- » part of a formal skill set

About this trainer/assessor guide

Learning resource

The learning resource is divided into the following topics:

- » Clarify compliance issues on which liaison is required
- » Identify the target groups for promotional or liaison activities
- » Identify contacts for liaison
- » Develop an action plan for the promotional and liaison activities
- » Assign resources for promotional and liaison activities
- » Communicate with identified contacts
- » Manage promotional and liaison activities
- » Evaluate promotional and liaison activities
- » Document promotional activities

Each topic provides information to help you gain the skills and knowledge required to perform the work tasks to which they refer. Read the information and practise the skills described. You should also take the opportunity to undertake additional independent research. Your trainer/assessor may also provide supplementary information including interpretation of the contents of this resource.

At the end of each topic is:

- » a set of true or false questions
- » a set of multiple choice questions

These questions provide an opportunity to check your understanding and progress. They are self-marking and do not form part of the assessment for the unit.

Assessment workbook

To have this unit recognised as a formal qualification you need to have your skills and knowledge assessed. The assessment workbook provides:

- » information on competency-based assessment
- » instructions on how you will be assessed
- » assessment tools to assess your competence
- » instructions on how to complete the assessment tasks within each assessment tool

To be assessed as competent you need to provide evidence that you have the skills and knowledge to undertake the requirements of this unit. This assessment of competency is made by a qualified trainer/assessor from a registered training organisation. You must complete all the assessments as directed by your trainer/assessor to the required standard. It is not necessary to work through the guide in the order in which it is written. However this is at the discretion of your trainer/assessor.
